Calculator in exam mode (online)

Texas Instruments (TI)

84 Plus CE-T (OS 5.6 or higher)
84 Plus CE-T (Python Edition) (OS 5.6 or higher)
84 Evo-T (OS 7.0 or higher)

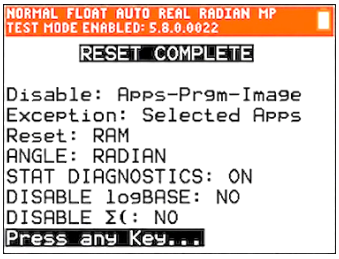

1. Turn off your calculator.
2. Simultaneously press enter and +, hold these buttons and press on until the following screen appears:

For the TI 84 Evo-T, this screen looks slightly different, but the options are the same.

3. For ANGLE choose the desired angular measure (you can change this later if you want).
4. For STAT DIAGNOSTICS choose ON
5. For DISABLE logBASE choose NO
6. For DISABLE ∑(choose NO
7. Press zoom (OK)

   The calculator will now restart in exam mode. This may take a while.

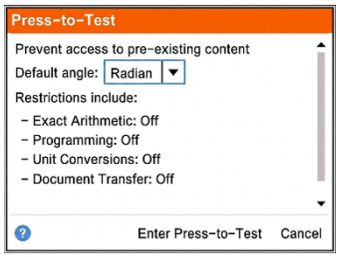

8. Press any key to activate exam mode.

Texas Instruments (TI)

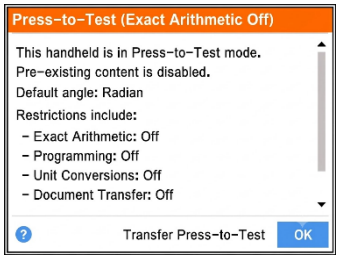

Nspire CX (OS 4.5.4 or higher)
Nspire CX II-T (OS 5.4 or higher)

1. Turn off your calculator.
2. Simultaneously press enter and +, hold these buttons and press on until the following screen appears:

3. Choose the desired angular measure (you can change this later if you want).
4. Choose ‘Enter Press-to-Test’.

   The calculator will now restart in exam mode. This may take a while.

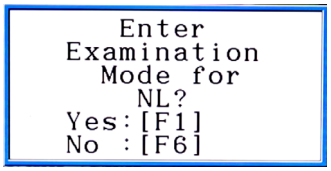

5. Choose ‘OK’.

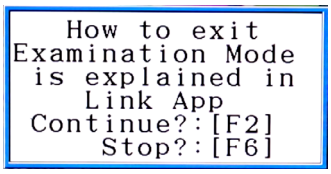

CASIO

fx-CG50 (OS 3.50 or higher)

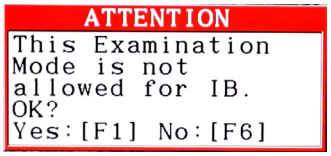

1. Turn off your calculator.
2. Simultaneously press 8 and →, hold these buttons and press AC/ON until the following screen appears:

3. Press F1 (Yes).

4. Press F2 (Continue).

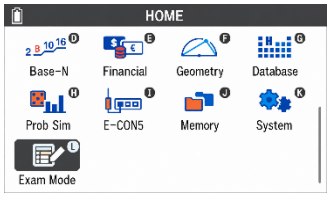

5. Press F1 (Yes).
   The calculator is now in exam mode.

CASIO

fx-CG100 (OS 2.10 or higher)

1. Press ⌂ (home).
2. Use the arrow keys to navigate to 'Exam Mode' and press EXE.

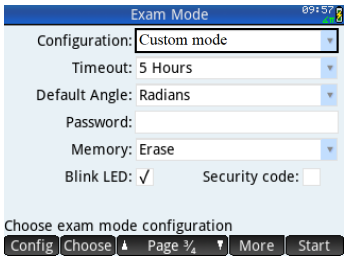

3. Choose 'Enter Exam Mode'.
4. Choose 'The Netherlands'.
5. Choose 'OK'.

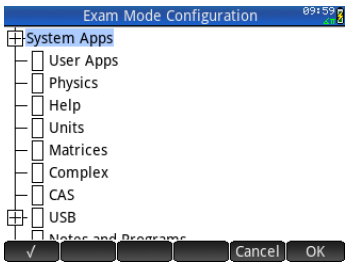

HP

Prime (firmware 2.3 or higher)

1. Turn on your calculator.
2. Simultaneously press On and Esc
3. For 'Configuration' choose 'Custom Mode'.

4. For 'Timeout' choose '5 Hours'.
5. For 'Default Angle' choose the desired angular measure (you can change this later if you want).
6. Don't enter a password.
7. For 'Memory' choose 'Erase' (if you don't see a dropdown-menu but a checkbox, then mark this checkbox).
8. Mark 'Blink LED'.
9. Press 'Config' (at the bottom of the screen).

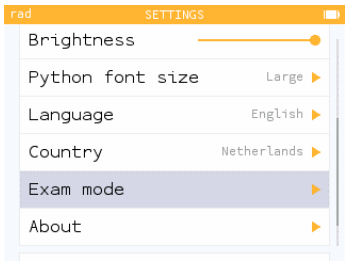

10. Mark the following things:
    - User Apps
    - CAS
    - Notes and Programs
    - New Notes and Programs
11. Press 'OK' (at the bottom of the screen).
12. Press 'Start' (at the bottom of the screen).
13. Swipe the icon (the blue lock) to the right to start the exam mode.

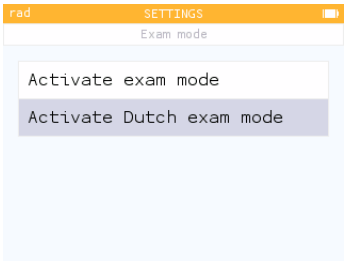

NumWorks

version 19 or higher

1. Turn on your calculator.
2. Use the arrow keys to navigate to ‘Settings’ and press OK.
3. For ‘Country’ choose ‘Netherlands’
4. Choose ‘Exam mode’.

5. Choose ‘Activate Dutch exam mode’.

6. Choose ‘Confirm’.
   The calculator is now in exam mode.

